

Boulder Footwash

Date: April 16, Palm "Saturday"

The Boulder Footwash is the season ending event for the Lamb's Lunch, which is a lunch for the homeless held at First Pres every Saturday in the cold weather months. Activities at the Footwash, in addition to lunch, include haircuts, manicures, clothes give-away, egg dyeing and face painting for the kids, a worship service and a praise band and of course foot washing, both giving and getting. There are opportunities at all levels of comfort, from cooking in the main kitchen to the hug line. The foot washing is based on John 13:5 where Jesus turns the world upside down by coming to serve rather than be served.

Date: April 16, Palm "Saturday" (The day before Palm Sunday.)

Time: Volunteers needed from 8:00 till 2:30.

Contact: Russ Teets at 303.449.0843 or ртеets@fpcboulder.org

www.lambsmintistry.org

A free hot meal is served for lunch.		Many cooks are needed for preparing the meal.
	Haircuts Beard & Mustache Trims		Prayer
Footcare by doctors and nurses.		And yes, there is Footwashing! You may give or receive.	